

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

PROCLAMATION

Our justice system is full of dedicated professionals who make our cities safe places to live. By providing reformed citizens opportunities to be productive members of society, probation personnel offer the chance for a better future for countless individuals across our Golden State.

Probation officers work tirelessly with local law departments and their communities to rehabilitate offenders and help them seek restitution. These devoted men and women also facilitate the reentry of convicts into society. Their efforts, in conjunction with those of many other groups, ensure a more lawful society and safer neighborhoods for our families.

This week, I encourage all Californians to join me in recognizing probation professionals for their amazing contributions to our legal system and our state. Their services are an essential part of our courts, and they help maintain peace and civility across California.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER, Governor of the State of California, do hereby proclaim July 18-24, 2010, as "Probation Services Week."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of California to be affixed this 9th day of July 2010.

ARNOLD SCHWARZENEGGER
Governor of California
